MULTI-RACIALISM IS MURDER!

BRITAIN'S EXPERIENCE OF MULTI-RACIALISM CAN BE SUMMED UP IN THREE WORDS: SHEER BLOODY MURDER! HARDLY A WEEK HAS GONE BY IN 1981 WITHOUT NEWS OF RIOTS, MURDERS, MUGGINGS, RAPES AND LOOTING IN WHICH RACIAL ANTAGONISM WAS A KEY MOTIVATING FACTOR.

As this feature was being prepared (21st June) news started to break of rioting in Peckham, South London – firstly between gangs of Black and White youths, and then later between Blacks and the Police.

Early radio news bulletins announced that a Black youth was stabbed to death by Whites and that Police had claimed that this incident was not connected with the race riots which took place in the same area at the same time. Later news bulletins deleted all reference to the stabbing.

The riots in Peckham followed riots in Brixton, South London; Finsbury Park, North London; Wanstead Flats, East London; Ealing Common, West London and Thornton Heath, South London.

PULL-OUT

'Terry just happened to be a white boy in the wrong place at the wrong time'

RACE MURDER IN SUBURBIA

POWDER-KEG

But London is by no means the only place where savage racial violence is erupting. The West Midlands is clearly a powder-keg with eruptions in Coventry, Birmingham, Walsall, Wolverhampton and Bilston.

Trouble is brewing in Manchester, Leeds, Nottingham, Leicester, Bradford, Gloucester and Bristol (again!).

For White people who still support the multi-racial concept as a workable way to organise human society, the most significant incident so far this year was the murder of 19 year old White youth Terry May in Thornton Heath, Croydon, on the night of 1st June.

It is significant because Terry was a model of what multi-racialists in the Establishment would wish a White British working class youth to be:

He was consciously in favour of race-mixing. He liked West Indian food. His favourite music was reggae. His hero was the West Indian 'Wailers' reggae band leader Bob Marley – a high priest of the Rastafarian dope-smoking cult. He had a lot of West Indian friends.

According to the theory of multi-racialism, Terry was well-equipped to survive in the multi-racial environment into which he was born.

But in fact he was murdered in his own home neighbourhood by a gang of Blacks for one simple reason: he was White.

On the evening of 1st June Terry was out riding his motorbike with one of his White friends, John Plested. They were totally unaware that a mob of armed young Blacks was out on a 'Whitey'-hunting foray in the area.

The mob ambushed Terry and John as they slowed down at a crossroad. John managed to make his escape by leaping on a bus. But Terry was a cripple, and so the pack were able to bring him down.

He was stabbed and slashed and hacked with knives and choppers. He called for help, but no help came. He crawled in agony for 100 yards, then died in the gutter.

The frenzy of the mob was such that they were not content just to stab and chop and slash his body. Once he had fallen they mutilated his face.

After identifying his son at the mortuary, Terry's father Donald May said:

"ANIMALS"

"When I saw my boy, his teeth were all smashed and his face was in a terrible state. I don't think animals should be treated like that, let alone a human being."

The Black-dominated Croydon Community Relations Council, the local Police and the mass media have launched a campaign to try and blame racial tensions in the area on "a recent National Front march through the town".

TERRY MAY was a cripple, a multi-racialist with "lots of Black friends and reggae records". But he was White, and so he was butchered.

This is pathetic as the march took place three months before Terry May's murder; in Addington, not Thornton Heath; on the subject of unemployment, not race relations; and without any disturbances.

Multi-racialists will continue to use the National Front as a whipping-boy, but this will not expiate their folly nor will it make their bizarre 'idealism' a reality.

Multi-racialism has FAILED. Those in authority who try and make the system work are engaged in as futile a task as trying to breathe life into the corpse of Terry May.

STOP PRESS

NF to contest Croydon NW By-election

VOTERS in Thornton Heath and other parts of the Croydon NW constituency will be given an opportunity to register their disgust with the multi-racial society by voting for the National Front in a by-election later this year.

The by-election comes about as a result of the sudden death of the local MP, Mr. Robert Taylor, on 19th June.

The NF candidate will be NF National Directorate member Mr. Nick Griffin, 23, who lives in Thornton Heath.

Mr. Griffin is a Cambridge University law graduate and a boxing 'blue'. He is co-editor of the NF magazine Nationalism Today.

Ulster welcome

Shopkeepers and shoppers alike poured out into the Shankhill Road, Belfast, to greet "the English NF boys". Hundreds of copies of NF News were sold.

THIRTY-NINE members of the National Front from all over England spent the last weekend of May in Belfast.

They received a tremendous reception from the Loyalist community and harassment from sections of the local Police acting under orders from the government's Northern Ireland Office.

The mass media has been telling the Loyalists for ten years that people on "the mainland" don't care about them. So a delegation of people who DO care was bound to make a big impression. Everywhere they went, people wanted to meet "the boys from England".

Old men – veterans of two World Wars – shook their hands, overwhelmed to know that England has not forgotten their courage and sacrifice.

Housewives embraced them, moved to tears by the fact that their husbands and sons in the RUC or locked in Long Kesh for loyalty to

ISRAEL – THE TERRORIST STATE

ISRAEL is a terrorist state. It was created by terrorism in 1948 and it has flaunted its terrorist proclivities every year since then. The recent Israeli bombing raid on Iraq's nuclear power plant did not represent a new form of Israeli conduct. Menachem Begin, Israel's Prime Minister, has been murdering his political/racial opponents and blowing up their property ever since he was leader of the Irgun Zwei Leumi in pre-1948 Palestine.

The Israeli public, in an ecstasy of blood-madness so characteristic of their tribe down the ages, will probably re-elect Begin for a further term as their leader in current elections.

Even more sinister than the bombing raid on Iraq was the murder last month of a PLO diplomat in Brussels. Hardly had the assassin's gunsmoke cleared than Zionist "experts" were declaring that the murderers were Palestinians.

The PLO diplomat was just about to commence negotiations with EEC politicians which would have enhanced the international standing of the PLO and eased European nations away from total involvement in American (i.e. Zionist) Middle East policy. There can be no doubt that Menachem Begin himself personally ordered agents of the Mossad (Israel's roving murder squad) to 'hit' the PLO man as a warning to European politicians not to get out of line.

NF News seeks to persuade its readers to feel angry about the evils of multi-racialism and to direct their anger solely at the corrupt politicians who created a racial problem in Britain, and not to the Immigrant population in general. "Racialism" is NOT unlawful – only "racial hatred".

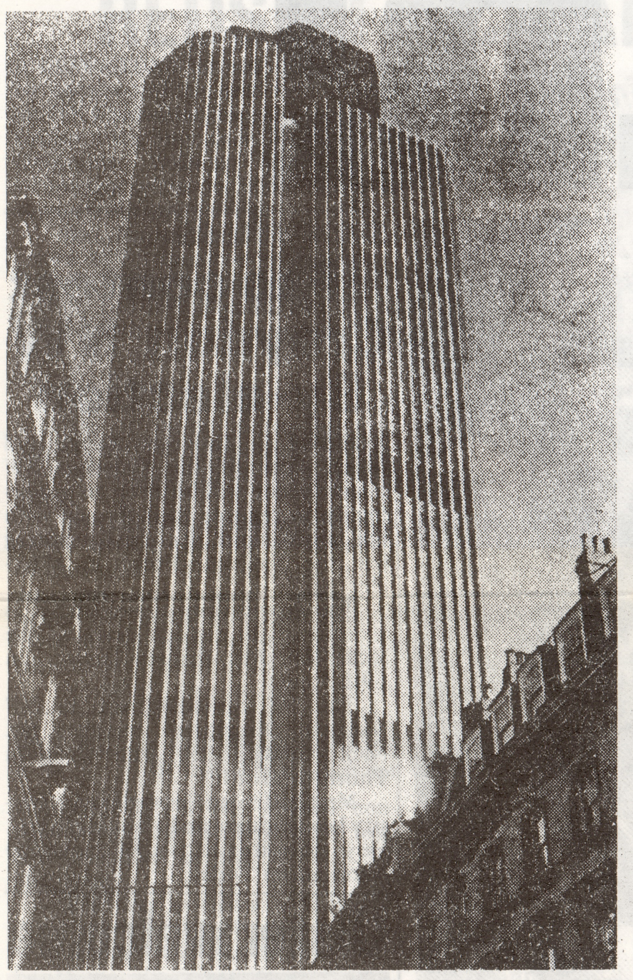
YOUNG COUPLES WILL NEVER GET A HOME UNTIL USURY IS ELIMINATED

BLAME BANKERS FOR HOUSING MISERY



No, this is not the "Ministry of Plenty" in George Orwell's book 1984. It is the new Nat-West Tower which was officially opened by the Queen last month.

This sinister monstrosity cost £82 million to build and is the tallest building in Britain. Its ugliness might be excused if it were a monument to productive industry – but it is not. It is a monument to usury.

Britain will only become a better place when this hideous temple to the Golden Calf – and the system which created it – is demolished.

A MONUMENT to Usury: the Nat-West Tower, built out of the massive profits of the National Westminster Bank, stands in stark contrast to the housing misery being suffered by thousands of British families.

Yet it is because of the bankers' racket that so many Britons live in either sub-standard housing or, in many cases, cannot afford a house at all.

The basic cost of building a three bedroomed council house is now in the region of £15,000. However when all the interest charges have been added the final cost to the council is over £106,000.

The difference of £91,000 is the amount of interest paid to the banks and other finance houses.

This extortion racket means that Councils cannot afford to build new houses of a decent standard, nor can they repair and maintain existing houses.

In the 1950's and 1960's, under housing ministers such as Keith Joseph, this led to the building of cheap "system built" housing blocks. Now we are suffering from the consequences of this act of desperation by housing authorities.

A recent survey in Liverpool revealed that over 30% of the city's 200,000 dwellings are "statutorily unfit" or lacking basic amenities. A detailed examination of just one block in Storrington Heys disclosed an astonishing list of defects: concrete breaking away from window surrounds, corrosion of essential reinforcement material, cracks nearly an inch wide in walls, severe damp penetration, and concrete breaking away from balconies.

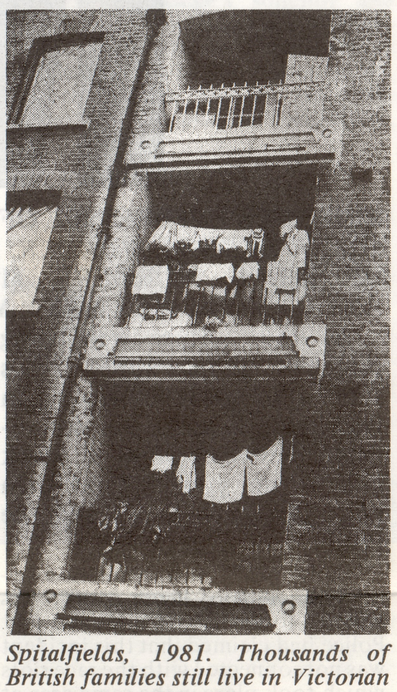
In Stratford, East London, whole blocks are currently being demolished because of similar defects. The grim result of this appalling train of disaster is that our old folk are forced to live in grim, damp, sub-standard housing while young couples cannot find anywhere where they can afford to live and raise a family.

The Liverpool study showed that already these housing conditions are directly contributing towards physical and mental illness amongst the inhabitants. Yet the situation is likely to worsen with the number of new homes being built falling dramatically.

In 1977 over 275,000 new houses were started, in 1980 this figure was down to just 158,000.

With some councils now pursuing a policy of "positive discrimination" many of these houses will be destined for alien immigrants and not for our own young couples.

This record of housing catastrophe is largely due to the way in which the government allows bankers to 'create' money by the simple expedient of making an entry in their ledgers to say that it exists in the form of a loan. Loans of such 'money' must be repaid to the banks at usurious interest rates with real money which people have had to earn.



Spitalfields, 1981. Thousands of British families still live in Victorian tenements such as this.

In 1978/79 local authorities spent £1,733 million in interest charges on their housing alone.

Britain's housing crisis can only be tackled by a government with the guts to prohibit the bankers' 'money-creation' racket and to set up a Municipal Bank able to provide local councils with low-interest loans for housing projects.

ITALY'S 'GRAND ORIENT' EXPRESS CRASHES

THE lid has been blown off the corruption of Freemasonry in a public scandal that has rocked Italian politics.

The fall of Italian Prime Minister Arnaldo Forlani's government last month follows the exposure of a giant Freemasonic conspiracy involving espionage and fraud at the highest levels of the country's Establishment.

Behind the conspiracy was a secret Grand Orient Masonic Lodge code-named 'Propaganda Two' (P2). Manipulator of the plot was its Grand Master, Licio Gelli, now on the run from charges of political espionage and endangering State security.

Numerous arrests and resignations have followed revelations that scores of bankers, politicians, diplomats, Secret Service chiefs, newspaper editors, and industrialists were members of the P2 Lodge – all involved in a conspiracy of financial and political "self-help" stretching into every branch of Government, the Armed Forces and the Police.

The scandal emerged as a result of a Commission of Enquiry attempting to unravel another major scandal – the Sindona affair – a fraud involving a Freemasonic banker, Michele Sindona (a financial adviser to the Vatican!) who is now serving 25 years in jail following the collapse of his banking empire.

Police raids on P2's Rome offices and on the country villa of Grand Master Gelli soon followed.

Documents seized revealed the operation of a gigantic fraud by the Freemasons in which hundreds of millions were creamed off an oil contract between Saudi Arabia and the Italian State Oil Company.

£1,000 million was distributed among hundreds of Freemasonic civil servants, politicians and industrialists who now face criminal charges.

The scandal also involves allegations of blackmail and murder.

Italian Justice Minister Adolpho Sarti resigned following his exposure as a member of P2.

Col. Antonio Viezzier of the Secret Service has been charged with passing State secrets to the Freemasons.

Three aides to the former Foreign Trade Minister, Gaetano Stammati, face charges of political espionage.

P2 member General Raffaele Guidici of the Finance Police has been arrested and charged in connection with the oil contract fraud.

Students of Freemasonry in Britain will have been amused to compare two articles about the Italian scandal which appeared side by side in the Sunday Telegraph.

Leslie Childe, reporting from Rome, described P2's membership list as:

"A 'Who's Who' of Italian power and influence – 953 names in all, including two Cabinet Ministers, 19 judges and numerous high-ranking Army officers and businessmen."

David Rosenberg, writing about the British Lodge, quotes an authority as saying of British Freemasonry:

"It is very unlikely that a similar clique could operate here, as the movement is headed by so many people of obviously good repute."

MEDIA CORRUPTION EXPOSED

THE fact that so much of what passes as "news" in the media is really the propaganda of One World agencies and International Finance was highlighted last month in the UNESCO 'cash bribes' scandal.

It was revealed that the United Nations agency had given £210,000 in bribes to 15 important newspapers like Le Monde and La Stampa to print articles about the "imbalance" between the economies of the West and the Third World.

This internationalist propaganda appeared in the form of editorial supplements, not advertisements, and there was no indication that payment was received.

Originally UNESCO lied, claiming that the "grants" (i.e. bribes) had only come from the donation of a Japanese businessman. It was later admitted that eight UN agencies had financed the project, including UNESCO itself and the World Bank.

Bribery of this kind is a first step towards getting the 'One World' propaganda of the United Nations and its agencies adopted as the only official "news".

UNESCO plans to muzzle what little remains of a free press with its scheme for a "New World Information Order". The plan was originated at UNESCO's Belgrade Conference last October, which adopted the MacBride Report.

That document, produced under the chairmanship of former Irish Foreign Minister Sean MacBride, proposes that all news throughout the world should be controlled by a single UNESCO "World Information Centre".

The UNESCO proposals include imposing "standards for news content" (i.e. One World propaganda only); "new codes of press ethics" (i.e. outlawing anything 'racialist' or critical of the Third World); and measures to "protect" journalists (i.e. license them).

The real origin of these sinister proposals is International Finance. The "New World Information Order" is intended to complement the United Nations' "New World Economic Order", the scheme pioneered by the World Bank and International Monetary Fund to impoverish the West in order to enrich and exploit the Third World.

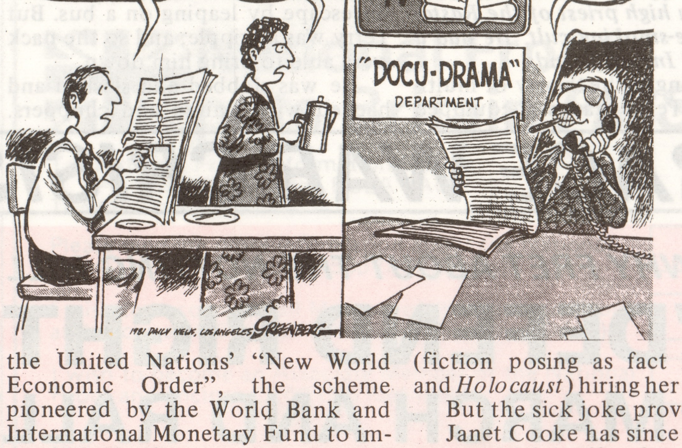
By controlling the world's media, only news and comment favourable to these plans for global economic control would be published.

Media corruption on a smaller but no less appalling scale has been symbolised by the incredible story of Janet Cooke, the Black journalist sacked from the Washington Post after winning a Pulitzer Prize for a story that was later exposed as a total fabrication.

We reprint an American cartoon published soon afterwards. It wryly jibes at media lies by suggesting that the hoax journalist must surely be unemployable, only to depict a TV company producing "docudramas" (fiction posing as fact like Roots and Holocaust) hiring her as a writer!

But the sick joke proved true!

Janet Cooke has since been inundated with job offers from American publishers, hired by the Los Angeles Herald Examiner and is anticipating such success that she is looking for a literary agent!



THIS REPORTER ADMITTED HER PULITZER-WINNING STORY ACTUALLY WAS A MIX OF FACT AND SHEER FABRICATION!

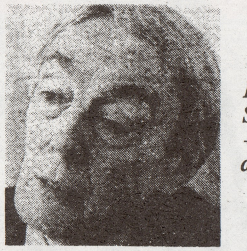
DEATH RATTLES

OF A MULTI-RACIAL SOCIETY

SCARMAN TELLS BLACK RIOTERS: "TRUST ME"

MOST people know of one major difference between the Black riot in Bristol in April last year and the Black riot in Brixton in April this year:



Lord Scarman – a judicial abortion

The Police at Bristol ran away abandoning the local population to the mercies of the looting, fire-raising mob for seven hours.

The Police at Brixton did not run away, fought back bravely and refused to abandon the community to the mercy of the mob.

But there is one other vital difference between the two events – or at least, the way in which the authorities reacted to them:

The government did not set up any kind of public inquiry into what went on at Bristol, whereas it did set up a Judicial Inquiry, under Lord Justice Scarman, to investigate the events at Brixton.

Everything that Lord Scarman has said and done preparatory to and during the first sessions of his inquiry indicate that the Metropolitan Police are in the dock charged with the heinous offence of putting law and order before 'community relations'

In addition, Scarman is doing everything he can to win support not just from the Black community at large, but from the vicious savages who rioted against the Police.

In order to drum up plenty of witnesses for the prosecution he offered what the Sunday Times described as "an unprecedented series of concessions" to rioters. These were:

- Immunity from prosecution, backed by a written guarantee from the Attorney General.
- Secret hearings to protect rioters' identity.
- Independent legal assistance to prepare statements.
- Acceptance of hearsay testimony to protect the identity of individuals.

This privileged treatment for Black rioter witnesses is in sharp contrast to the treatment Scarman announced that he would be according to the Police. He said:

"It is not a Police inquiry. It is an inquiry into policing. The Police will appear before it as witnesses and be open to questioning like anyone else who gives evidence."

The last phrase was a lie. The immunities will allow rioters to give evidence at secret hearings, and will allow them to present hearsay 'evidence' (information about events concerning which the 'witness' does not have a personal knowledge).

Scarman's Inquiry is more than just a judicial abortion – it is a propaganda circus designed to humiliate the Police in the hope that the spectacle will so entertain the Black community that they will become good humoured enough not to engage in any more race-riots – at least this year.

While the National Front has some sympathy for the Police in their present predicament, that sympathy is not unbounded.

The Police have increasingly adopted the tactic of harassing National Front members and lawful NF activities and of priming its 'Community Liaison' officers to make statements attacking the party in the hope of boosting Police standing with the Black community.

Now the Police, in their turn, are being used as a whipping-boy by Scarman, in the service of the political Establishment, to atone for the failure of the multi-racial society.

SOFTLY, SOFTLY -BRIXTON STYLE

"IT seems that in the view of some people, any behaviour – no matter how criminal – can be excused if it takes place in a deprived area and the criminal elements happen to be mainly Black."

This was stated by Mr. Jim Jardine, Chairman of the Police Federation, in April, replying to criticism of Police tactics during the Brixton riots.

His view was amplified in May by the Federation's Deputy Chairman, Inspector Basil Griffiths, at the Federation's Blackpool conference:

"Policemen are being held back during riots because the government and Police leaders are afraid of facing ridicule from Left Wing politicians and the media.

"People in high places are prepared to lean over backwards and not enforce laws already in being."

In June Scotland Yard officials banned the use of flashing lights and sirens by Police cars on patrol in Brixton for fear of 'provoking' further riots.

GOODWILL NOT ENOUGH

ANY attempt to construct a society based solely on "goodwill" is doomed to failure. Human societies can only flourish if their members share common objectives and agree to be bound by the same rules.

The attempt to construct a multi-racial society in Britain has failed because the majority of its members have never wanted to be part of such a society; because the various ethnic minority groups which comprise the rest of the membership have objectives and values which are in conflict with each other as well as with those of the majority; and because the minority groups regard the laws established by the majority as "oppression" and are in increasing revolt against them.

As a result of these factors, a power-struggle is taking shape which shows every sign of erupting into Race War.

In the ordinary course of events the White British people, being in the majority, should be in a good position to win this struggle. In fact, however, the majority is very much on the defensive because the key positions of power in the land – Parliamentary parties, Civil Service, mass media, big business, Police—are held either by minority aliens (in particular, Zionist Jews) or by traitors to the British race who, for reasons of perverse ideological commitment or ignoble careerism, actively champion the ethnic minorities and act to crush any hint of organised protest by the majority.

This is why there is the Race Relations Act and why millions are spent on 'Community Relations'.

This is why the Police ran away at Bristol. This is why the Police are being put on trial at the Scarman Tribunal for not running away at Brixton.

This is why racial violence by Blacks is depicted as "protests against unemployment and racialism" while racial violence by Whites is depicted as "vicious thuggery".

This is why Black protest marches are allowed to rampage through London while National Front marches are banned.

This is why "positive discrimination" to favour Blacks in employment, education and welfare is practised in the name of "social justice".

No society which manifests such contradictions, oppression and corruption can survive for long. Indeed, the manifestation of such phenomena can only be described as death rattles.

RACE VIOLENCE: FACTS THE MEDIA TRIES TO HIDE

UNABASHED by the murder of White youth Terry May by a Black gang in Thornton Heath, the media is still pushing the idea that racial violence in Britain is only perpetrated by "White racist thugs".

Innocent young White victim of Black race hatred

Only a week after the Terry May stabbing The Observer published a report headed: "Race Violence in Britain Doubles in Year". Apart from a fleeting reference to Terry May, the whole of the item was devoted to alleged attacks on Asians – compiled by Asian organisations.

Terry May's death was simply described as a "killing", while the death of an Asian in Tooting was described as "murder".

Murderous assaults on White youngsters by gangs of Blacks are not a new feature of the multi-racial scene – it's just that such incidents are very rarely reported in the national news media.

Take the case of the 17 year old lad in our photograph – John Dunraven of Sheffield. It took 300 stitches to sew up his back after he was attacked by a Black gang last year.

John was attacked for no reason other than the fact that he is White. The same gang that slashed him later that day hospitalised another White youth by coshing him with an iron bar.

Such attacks on White youngsters are by no means only perpetrated by West Indian gangs. Asian gangs are active in a number of areas.

Last year White youth David Sharp was walking home by himself near East Ham station, East London, when knife-wielding Asians leapt from a car and attacked him.

Warriors of the White race stalk an Asian Communist demonstration in Coventry

They repeatedly slashed his hands as he tried to shield his face. Only an emergency operation saved one of his fingers which was nearly severed.

In May this year two White youths – Clay Henley and John Dignam – were walking home from a disco in Wealdstone, near Harrow, when they were ambushed by a gang of about a dozen Asians.

Both White lads had their throats cut. 19 year old Clay nearly died as he was rushed to an intensive care unit.

White women are also made the target of racial attacks. In February four Black men pounced on 35 year old Irene Appleby, punched her to the ground, and then cut a swastika under her left eye.

These are just a few of numerous instances we have on file of racial violence against Whites (in addition to our files on 'ordinary' mugging attacks!).

Almost all the reports we have on file come from small-circulation local papers.

MOBILISE FOR THE BIG 'RIGHTS FOR WHITES' RALLY

CALLING all White British people who still have a bit of fight and self-respect in them!

You and your friends are asked to come to Fulham Broadway at 2.00 p.m. on Sunday 30th August to join a great march and rally on the theme: "DEFEND RIGHTS FOR WHITES!"

Elsewhere in West London the infamous Notting Hill 'Carnival' will be taking place.

The fact that the authorities are prepared to allow the 'Carnival' to go ahead after so many terrible race riots in London symbolises the way in which the government is prepared to trample on the feelings and endanger the lives of White people in order to pander to the Black community.

If White people do not stand up against this treatment now, they will be crushed even more. This march and rally will provide you with an opportunity to make a stand.

Fulham has been chosen for the site of this event because when the Police and the Home Secretary banned marches throughout London last April (in order to stop an NF march in Newham, East London!) they refused to allow the innocent and non-political Fulham Carnival to go ahead.

SAME TREATMENT?

If our proposed activity 'provokes' a further ban on marches, it will be interesting to see if the Notting Hill 'Carnival' is treated in the same way as the Fulham Carnival.

Even if our march is banned, please still turn up at Fulham Broadway – our rally cannot be banned and we will go ahead with it come what may. So be there!

Nationalism Today was founded last year as an independent publication, editorially supporting the NF, by three YNF members, Joe Pearce, Nick Griffin and Nick Wakeling.

Nationalism Today is a 20-page magazine, currently bi-monthly but shortly to become monthly. It contains a balance of snappy news stories, short features and longer ideological articles. It has a youthful outlook, an often satirical style, and a racial emphasis on social and economic issues.

Joe Pearce is 20 years old and has been a member of the National Front since 1976.

He is Editor of the official Young National Front paper Bulldog which he founded in 1977 as a duplicated NF Branch broadsheet.

Joe was the National Organiser of the YNF from 1977-1980, and since last year has been the Chairman of the YNF. He has been a member of the NF National Directorate since June 1980 and is a member of its Policy Department.

Nick Griffin is 22 years old. He is a Cambridge University Honours Graduate in Law and a boxing 'Blue'. He joined the National Front in 1974. He was elected to the NF National Directorate last year and is now Chairman of its Election Department.

Nick Wakeling is a 21 year old student. He joined the party in 1976. Nick is a regular contributor to Bulldog and the former editor of Anglian News, a local Nationalist newsheet. He is now the NF Norwich Branch Organiser.

N.I. LOYALISTS WELCOME N.F. MEMBERS

Britain, are not the only ones who oppose Republican treason.

Above all, children and teenagers mobbed them for badges, papers and leaflets.

The other type of "welcome" the NF delegation received was appreciated less. Republican MP Gerry Fitt demanded that they should be kept out under the Prevention of Terrorism Act!

NF delegation leaders held a long discussion with leading members of the Ulster Defence Association. Contrary to reports in the Guardian, the UDA were very friendly and sympathetic.

UDA Chairman Andy Tyrie pointed out that racialist policies are irrelevant to Ulster because there is no colour problem there, but accepted that the scale of immigration on the mainland makes the NF's views quite understandable.

The National Front received plenty of local media publicity. Hundreds of copies of NF News were sold up the Shankhill Road and thousands of leaflets were distributed.

Most important of all, leading local activists met three members of the NF's National Directorate who were able to give them advice on setting up and running efficient local units of the Party.

POLICE LOCK BABY IN CELL AFTER DAWN RAID COCK-UP

ELEVEN MONTH old Richard Harrington was detained by Police during a series of dawn raids against National Front members in Wandsworth, South London, on Friday 12th June and held in a cell without food or drink for six hours.

It is surmised that the purpose of the raids was to try and implicate those responsible for the production of South London News – a duplicated magazine produced by Wandsworth and Lambeth Young National Front members – with the person or persons unknown alleged to be subjecting Reds in South London to "harassment".

South London News has published the addresses and telephone numbers of local Reds active in organisations which have subjected National Front members to violent harassment over a period of years.

"INTO THE FRAME"

Baby Richard came "into the frame" (as the intrepid sleuths of Wandsworth CID would have it) because he happens to be the nephew of 17 year old Patrick Harrington, said to be "a regular contributor" to South London News.

Police swooped on Richard's home in North Battersea because they believed that Patrick was living there. In fact Patrick and his mother (also an NF member) had moved to a new home out of the area some weeks before.

When the Police barged in they only found Richard, his mother, Jane, and an Italian friend Claudio Rosso. Unlike the rest of the Harrington family, Jane Harrington holds strong Left Wing views and is a trade union activist.

Because Jane – out of family loyalty – refused to say where her brother Patrick had moved to; despite the fact that Mr. Rosso had little English and anyway did not know the address; and despite the fact that Richard could only say: "Goo-goo shblerr!", they were dragged away and locked in a cell at Earlsfield Police station.

'SPECIAL' BRANCH

On their way to the station Detective Inspector Williams, second in command of the fiasco, roundly cursed the incompetence of the Special Branch who were responsible for providing him with the wrong address.

(Inspector – could it have been deliberate? – Ed.)

In any operation involving a mother and a young baby, a woman Police officer should have been in attendance – but none was – either during the raid or at the station.

Where a mother with a young baby is detained, a social worker should be called to take the baby into care. No social worker was called.

All persons held in custody are entitled to food and drink. Food and drink were refused – even to baby Richard – for a period of six hours, despite repeated applications by Richard's mother.

Could this 11 month old baby, Richard Harrington, really be the sinister 'Stan Smith', Editor of the sinister magazine South London News? Richard is seen here about to write an article entitled: "Our Police are Very Wonderful!"

Persons held in custody are entitled to make contact with their solicitor – but repeated applications to exercise this right were refused.

This disgraceful bullying of two non-NF adults and an innocent baby was perpetrated by the Police in order to force Jane to say where her brother Patrick lived.

She gave them the information after two hours – but she, her baby and Mr. Rosso were held for a further four hours – without refreshment or access to a solicitor!

NO SEARCH WARRANT

Inspector Williams and his men descended on Patrick Harrington's home at 8.30 a.m. – but were refused permission to search as they did not possess a search warrant. Patrick, however, was taken away to Earlsfield.

The Police later returned to Patrick's home with a search warrant, searched his room and seized his GCE 'O' level examination revision notes!

Meanwhile, the home of Mr. Peter Berbridge, Wandsworth NF Branch Organiser, had been raided at 6.30 a.m. The PO box number (PO Box 64, S.W.18) rented by Mr. Berbridge is used by South London News as its forwarding address. Mr. Berbridge was taken to Earlsfield Police station.

Mr. Berbridge and Patrick were held in custody until 6.30 p.m., during which time they were refused any refreshment and refused access to a solicitor.

Mr. Berbridge's solicitor and his wife were in attendance at Earlsfield from 12.30 p.m. Their repeated applications to be allowed to see Mr. Berbridge were met by lies ("He doesn't want to see you") and abuse.

POLICE GROWLS

Mr. Berbridge and Patrick were subjected to interrogation but they refused to make any statement, despite threats to detain them throughout the weekend.

Eventually Mr. Berbridge and Patrick were released amidst Police growls about "submitting a report to the DPP".

During the last four years Left Wing publications have printed the names, addresses and phone numbers of hundreds of NF activists – and dozens of these have been subjected to violent harassment, including arson attacks.

The Police have never taken any action against the Left Wing publishers or against those responsible for attacks on NF members' homes or workplaces.

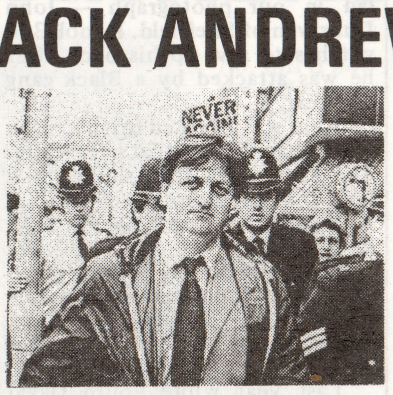
REDS ATTACK ANDREW BRONS

A COWARDLY ambush was sprung by members of the Anti Nazi League on NF Chairman Andrew Brons on Friday 15th May as he walked into Harrogate College of Further Education where he is a lecturer in government and politics.

Mr. Brons was jostled by a crowd of 80 banner-waving demonstrators. He was pushed to the ground and then kicked. The Police did not take effective action until after the assault had been perpetrated.

Since the attack there have been a series of picket demonstrations against Mr. Brons mounted jointly by the National Union of Students and ANAL.

The campaign against Mr. Brons began with a meeting of members of Harrogate College students' union on 12th May which resolved to harass him until he either resigned from the National Front or resigned his college lecturer's job.



NF Chairman Andrew Brons, ruffled but unbowed after the attack

However, this students' union meeting was unlawful in that it had not been summoned in accordance with the union's rules (only Leftist students got to hear of it) and because it was inquorate.

A year ago a students' union meeting was called to demand Mr. Brons' resignation. That meeting was called in accordance with union rules, was well attended by a cross-section of the whole student body, and an NF spokesman (NF Directorate member Ian Anderson) was permitted to speak in defence of Mr. Brons.

As a result, the anti-Brons demands were thrown out. That is why the Reds had to resort to fraud in order to stage the meeting this year.

Harrogate College Principal Mr. Peter Drake told the press after the bogus student union meeting:

"Andrew Brons has lectured at this college for the past 11 years in a completely satisfactory manner. He has never attempted to introduce his private political views into the lecture room, and there has never been an allegation that he had done so.

"By no means all of the students involved in the demonstration against Mr. Brons are students at this college."

Mr. Brons' reaction to the Reds' demand was predictable:

"Go to Hell!"

NF vote doubled in Battersea poll

WANDSWORTH NF Branch contested each of the borough's four constituencies in the recent GLC elections.

With the branch's resources so thinly spread, the best result was 2.77 – obtained by NF Directorate member Michael Salt in Battersea North.

However a borough council by-election had been called for 14th May – a week after the GLC polling day. The election was for Latchmere Ward in the Battersea North constituency. Michael Salt was adopted as the NF candidate.

For this campaign the Branch was able to concentrate its manpower and financial resources.

A special collection was taken, and with the proceeds a large, well illustrated, two-colour election leaflet was produced and distributed.

This operation was assisted by members from other South London branches because of the huge and vicious Black gangs which roam this neighbourhood.

The effort paid off. This time the NF percentage was 6.24 – more than double the GLC percentage. The Liberal candidate was well beaten.

This campaign will serve as a model for NF tactics in next year's borough council elections.
